

Leadership Council Intern

Description:

Christian Students Leadership Council is a group of students who come together to fellowship and pray for UW-Madison. They take the lead in the student organization by being a pattern to other members. Also they learn how to coordinate, plan, and execute various weekly events and activities with the support of the staff. As an Intern you will be helping in planning and executing various activities for Christian Students. You will be a part of a team of students to carry out events, creating social media content, contacting prospective members, and helping to maintain our good standing with the University.

Responsibilities:

- Attend bi-monthly leadership council meetings
- Attend the majority of Revive meetings during the semester
- Be willing to help other leaders in Christian Students in their roles and duties
- Be able to coordinate and work with other interns on projects or supporting events.

Qualifications:

Required:

- Must be an active member of Christian Students for at least (1) semester
- Must be competent in MS Office programs (Word, Excel, Power point, etc.)
- Willing to be flexible and work well with others
- Excellent communication skills both oral and written

Preferred:

- Currently reading or have read the entire New Testament
